

Romulus Is New Location For 34th District Court

CLEAN CITY CAMPAIGN—Romulus Jaycees concerned about keeping Romulus Township clean as they are about many other projects toward improving township living have installed the first of four large metal litter containers. The township not only thanked the Jaycees for the clean-up program but Township Supervisor Roderick E. Smith commended the organization, left to right at the installation of a litter container on Goddard Road in the shopping district are: Alfred J. Huron School Board Airs Successful Bond Sale Bid Huron School District received one bid at the authorized rate on the proposed $1,920,000 Bond issue on Thursday, June 19, school officials announce.

Experts in the business of under-writing Municipal Bond issues said as early as two weeks earlier that the state's authorized interest rate was not a sufficient return in today's market to obtain a buyer for these bonds.

To make matters even worse, the interest market, in the two weeks preceding the sale, continued to worsen by moving off nearly an additional one fourth of one percent.

The Huron School District Board on June 17, received construction bids and were prepared to proceed with the construction program.

WITH CONSTRUCTION costs mounting almost weekly, everyone was eager to get these contracts signed—before they had to pay a higher price later—or construct less than was approved by the electors.

How was it done?

Romulus Jaycees Donate Litter Cans

ROMULUS—The first of four large metal litter containers donated to Romulus Township by the Romulus Jaycees has been installed in the Romulus shopping district on Goddard Road near Sterling.

Jaycees and township officials attended the presentation of the container on Wednesday, June 18. It is part of a clean-up campaign initiated by the Jaycees to make Romulus a cleaner and better place in which to reside.

The township board approved and accepted the donations of the litter containers and asked residents to cooperate with the Jaycees in using the containers. In accepting them, Township Supervisor Roderick E. Smith said:

"The Romulus Jaycees long interested in community affairs in Romulus, is once again to be commended for their sense of dedication and the pride which they so often display in local projects.

"They have long been concerned about the need for adequate means to keep the Township clean and free of debris, and their offer to make these litter containers available to the Township was approved by the Township Board without hesitation."

Other installations are expected to be completed within two weeks.

program they employed the services of Stauder, Barch and Associates, as bond financial and marketing consultants.

Following the concentrated efforts made by these experts, Carl Rush, board treasurer and Byron K. Antcliff, superintendent of the Huron School District, approximately $1,420,000 of the bonds were pre-sold placed on Wednesday, June 17, leaving the remaining $500,000 due 1980-87 to be sold.

With time running out and the efforts of many months seemingly to no avail, the last phone call was placed with five minutes to spare.

THE BONDS were sold and residents of the district were assured of their school facilities at a price well below prevailing interest rates—thus saving area residents many tax dollars.

What makes this a great accomplishment, is the fact that of all Michigan School Bonds issued during the last month and a half, this is the only issue that received a bid.

This is further evidenced by the fact that the State of Michigan has had to cancel their $70,000,000 recreational bond issue because of interest rates being beyond authorized limits.

Recreation Meeting Scheduled

ROMULUS—The Board of Education for the Romulus Community Schools has been invited by the Township Board to attend a meeting tentatively set for tomorrow, June 26, at 8 p.m., in the township's Water and Sewer Building.

The meeting is being set up by the township's trustees for discussion of township-school recreation programs and the appointment by school officials of representatives to the 11-member Romulus Parks and Recreation Commission.

It was reported that school officials requested that they be permitted to recommend four persons to the commission.

The Township Board did not agree and as a result the school board made no recommendations.

The summer recreational programs include the use of school buses and equipment.

Board Accepts Atchinson Bids

ROMULUS—Bids submitted by Atchinson Ford Sales, 9800 Belleville Road, on the purchase by Romulus Township of new police car and a dog truck have been approved by the Township Board.

The low bids were: police car, $2,695; and dog truck, $1,935.

ROMULUS—The 34th District Court serving the communities of the City of Belleville, Huron, Romulus, Sumpter and Van Buren Townships will open for business in new and larger quarters June 30.

Court sessions are scheduled to open at the new facility on Monday, June 30, Charles E. Walls, chief clerk, announced.

Under the provisions of state law setting up the District Court, Romulus, based on population, was officially designated as the location for the court.

School officials held the structure to be obsolete and inadequate for school operations.

The renovation program of the Old Hale School was under the supervision of Alfred J. Perry, Township clerk, who reported that the remodeling and renovation program of the building now made it "on a par with the best."

BENEFITS CITED

Start of VB Reading And Guidance Project Described

MRS. ELLA WOLLERY
Director

BELLEVILLE--The overall plans for the 1968-1969 Title I Project in the Van Buren Elementary Schools were formulated in four-evening workshops which were held at West Willow Elementary School in July, 1968.

Representatives from the staffs of both the public and parochial schools were present. Local parents and members from the State Title I office, the OEO and PRESCAD were included in this workshop.

The aim of the workshops was to explore ways to increase responsible behavior in school children. It was hypothesized that if ways could be devised to increase self-responsibility at an early age then at least two purposes might eventually be accomplished.

*Students might become more motivated to reach their maximum growth in both the academic and social areas.

*That responsible self-action might be one positive step toward the prevention of later potential disruptive and/or delinquent behavior.

We agreed on three basic principles:

*That responsible behavior is a learned process and is not innate within the individual.

*That students who have few learning disabilities and/or emotional hang-ups tend to learn and apply responsible behavior at an earlier age.

*That proper academic materials must be provided so that every child can experience success.

THE QUESTION then became, "What more can parents, teachers and administrators do to promote and instill Student Responsible Behavior?"

We agreed that motivation might be the prime factor in learning how to accept and utilize self-responsibility. It was decided to use Token Economy as this motivating component.

Token Economy was agreed upon because its underlying principle is rewarding only positive behavior. It was believed that through this system of rewards that the following objectives might eventually be realized: (1) The development and growth in self-responsibility which might lead to (2) Positive growth in both reading the social areas which in turn might aid the elementary schools to become more instrumental in the (3) Early Prevention of potential disruptive and/or delinquent behavior. Accordingly elementary teachers participated in the study of Token Economy (and other forms of Behavior Modification) in a joint effort to increase reading skills and student responsible self-action and decrease tendencies towards disruptive behavior.

TITLE I MEETINGS convened monthly to study the progress of and suggest changes in the project. Furthermore, a Behavior Modification practicum was arranged through Eastern Michigan University. Teachers from the elementary, junior and senior high schools joined this class.

From feedback from conferences with teachers and students, and the Title I Workshops, additional components to the project were introduced. Both Pre and Post Reading Tests were given to measure the effectiveness of the project and recommendations for the 1969-1970 were suggested.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The additional components, the test results and the recommendations for 1969-1970 will be included in the final report next week.

GIVING A HELPING HAND--Washtenaw County Probate Judge Francis O'Brien points out some interesting lessons to students at Van Buren Title I Reading and Guidance Center. With the students is Mrs. Beth Carlson, second grade teacher at West Willow Elementary School. The Judge's recent visit to the center brought commendation and support to the current programs.

Intensified Highway Patrols To Operate Over The Fourth

Area Traffic law Enforcement officials issued a Joint appeal for safe driving over the Fourth of July Holiday.

Michigan State Police bolstered by special car and plane speed detectors, will operate intensified holiday patrols beginning at noon Thursday, July 3, Col. Frederick E. Davids, department director, reported.

About 100 patrol cars will be employing the department's new electronic speed computer called VASCAR (visual average speed computer and recorder).

Officers have been in training the past several weeks so that the computer could be in use in all State Police districts about July 1. It is already in use in some areas.

THE AERIAL detectors will be the department pilots and their officer observers. They will clock motorists by stop watch over specially marked one-eighth mile sections of highway in various parts of the state.

Information on speeders will be radioed to patrol cars for followup action. This aerial speed patrol, used as manpower and weather permit, was put into effect several year ago.

Patrol troopers, augmented by motor vehicles check lane officers and other officers as needed, will provide holiday coverage from noon July 3 to midnight Sunday July 6.

MAXIMUM ATTENTION will be devoted to traffic from 3 to at least 9 p.m. daily during the holiday period.

July 4 holiday period accidents killed 26 persons in Michigan last year. The average toll for this holiday time was 31 in the years 1964-68. High loss for this period was 43 in 1964.

With good weather, motorists will drive an estimated 625.3 million miles in Michigan during the Fourth of July weekend, the Department of State Highways reported.

That's slightly more than the record 620.4 million miles for a comparable period, set during the Memorial Day weekend.

HEAVY TRAFFIC, to the point of congestion at times, is expected Thursday, July 3, and Sunday, July 6, on nearly all principal highways.

Motorists, especially those pulling boats and trailers, are urged to plan their trips to avoid peak travel periods.

Construction on state highways will be suspended from 5 p.m. Thursday until Monday morning.

Every precaution will be taken to eliminate hazards and minimize inconvenience to the public due to road and bridge construction.

Reports of New Refuse Collection Center in Sumpter Bring Protests

SUMPTER--Residents and homeowners in Sumpter township are up in arms on reports that a private disposal firm representative is seeking land options for the proposed construction of a garbage collection center in the township.

A protest meeting that attracted approximately 200 residents was held at 8 p.m. last Thursday, June 19, at 17400 Savage Road, site of Cecil Hall's Market.

The meeting was called by Elmer Parraghi of 39701 Willis Road, township politico and Cecil H. Hall, businessman and veteran township property owner, of 17400 Savage Road.

HIGHLIGHT AT the meeting was the formation of the United Homeowners Association of Sumpter (see story elsewhere in this issue) to fight any move to build garbage or refuse collection structures.

It was reported at the meeting that a representative of U.S. Disposal Company accompanied by the township supervisor, contacted Walter Rafalski, owner of some 58 acres of land at 42180 Harris Road, seeking option to purchase the site, offering upwards of $300,000.

Joseph Rafalski, son of Walter, told the gathering at the meeting that he and his father were told that the purchasers wanted to buy the land for a "zoo". Later they learned what the real purpose was.

Rafalski turned down the offer saying that he didn't want to sell. He was told that he had to sell because it was a Wayne County deal.

THE YOUNGER Rafalski contacted Parraghi and asked that a meeting of area residents be called.

At the meeting area land owners all stated that they objected to any further garbage collection or refuse structures in the township.

Sumpter Township currently has two large areas devoted to refuse collections.

THE HOMEOWNERS decided that the Township Board will be asked to explain at this week's board session reports that the firm is seeking the land site for dumping of Redford Township garbage and refuse.

An engineering report on solid waste disposal for Wayne County made in 1967 for the Wayne County Road Commission recommended the construction of five additional incinerators in western Wayne County that would be required in the next decade or so.

The study suggested that these incinerators be constructed in five districts, one which embraced Belleville, Van Buren, Romulus and Sumpter Townships.

It pointed out in the study that this district, currently sparsely populated, would not justify the construction of an incinerator plant within the next ten years but it recommended the construction of a transfer collection station in the area of Haggerty Road between Harris and Bemis Roads.

A COUNTY ROAD Commission spokesman reported that the commission is not seeking at this time any land options in Sumpter and further the county doesn't have the money at this time to proceed with any recommendations in the report.

Edmund Bizek, member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors from the 24th District, reported that he has received several inquiries and announced that the investigation showed that the county is not ready for construction of any new incinerators at this time or seeking to buy land in Sumpter.

NEW LOCATION

THE NEW court building will be air-conditioned, a new furnace has been installed, and both interior and exterior of the building have been cleaned and painted.

When the proposed Municipal Complex is constructed in Romulus, planned within the next 18 months, the court will again be moved and the Old Hale School will be returned to the Romulus Parks and Recreation Commission for its use as originally planned, Perry stated.

The new location will also house Romulus Violation Bureau as well as adequate office space and private chambers for Judge Stone.

Last week workmen completed black-topping a 10,000 square feet parking area.

James Summer Starting Basics

ROMULUS--Army Private James T. Summer is assigned to Company B, 11th Battalion, 4th Brigade, in the United States Army Training Center, Armor (USATCA), Ft. Knox, Ky.

Following the completion of the basic training, Pvt. Summer, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval A. Summer of 9016 Gabriel, will receive at least an additional eight weeks of either advanced instruction or on-the-job training to qualify him in a specialized military skill.

COMMISSION

One Inkster Group That Cares Enough

At least one little group of neighbors has gotten together to protect themselves against crime and nuisances in their neighborhood.

Complaints are heard at every Inkster City Council meeting about break-ins, litter, dogs, dragsters, motorcyclists, and the other problems of city life. And everyone expects the police to do for them.

The problem is that the citizen who complains one week of litter doesn't hear the one who complains about dogs the next week or the third person who complains about motorcyclists at the next meeting.

If these people sat at each meeting it would become apparent that nobody can do all those jobs at the same time. What is more unfortunate is that by the time the police would arrive the dogs, dragsters, motorcyclists, litterers and burglars are gone anyway.

So week after week City Attorney Albert Schlenker appeals to neighbors to sign complaints against the reckless drivers, the neighbors who let their dogs run wild, the people who are disturbing the peace. Police Chief James Fyke appeals to neighbors to look out for one another. And Councilman Clyde Hamlin appeals to citizens to care about themselves, their neighbors, and their community.

Recently block clubs and civic associations have begun to spring up in the City. The Preston Block Club, the William Workers Block Club, United Block Clubs No. 1 and No. 2, and the Park Ridge Civic Association, to name a few.

We'd like to tip our hats to members of one of these groups who cared enough to do something about a problem, instead of just complaining.

Members of the Park Ridge Association this week decided that they were going to do something about the dragsters who've been plaguing them on their block. So they used a car to block the street and residents surrounded the dragster until they could identify the driver.

In addition, alarmed by a rash of break-ins during the recent Memorial Day holiday, the members of the Park Ridge Civic Association have decided to form a patrol of residents to watch over their homes at night. They picked this course of action after a meeting with Police Chief James Fyke.

A policeman may not be there when burglars are casing your neighbor's house; but you are. Watch out for your neighbors when they're on vacation or when they're working and have them do likewise.

Let your neighbors know that you are not willing to let them litter your neighborhood or let their dogs run wild. Most people are afraid or unwilling to sign complaints. This is where a block club or civic improvement association comes in. There is strength in numbers and what a person may be afraid to do as an individual he may be willing to do as a member of a club.

There is no doubt that Inkster needs more policemen. But to stop all instances of these kinds, it would take one policeman for every resident. The police cannot be everywhere all the time.

We hope Inksterites and citizens of other communities will take the example of the Park Ridge Civic Association to heart and start caring enough about themselves, their neighbors, and their communities to get involved and aid the police.

A Good Idea

With the construction of several drive-in type restaurants at this time in Wayne, it is most wise of the Wayne City Council to be studying an ordinance for drive-in restaurants.

An ordinance of this type does put restrictions on both the owner of the establishment and the patrons. It would demand that the owner set certain standards for operating his business, while it would require that patrons not drink, race car motors, or unlawfully congregate on the business establishment's property.

But these restrictions would have a way of "setting free" both the owner and the patron. The owner would have the law on his side to run a decent establishment, and a means of keeping away the undesirable element. It was, it should be noted, a drive-in restaurant owner that pointed out to City officials the need for a drive-in ordinance.

Patrons who frequent drive-ins where there is a drive-in ordinance can be assured of a better business.

And lastly the residents of the area can be freed from some of the noise and unsightliness that often accompany a drive-in in areas that do not have a drive-in ordinance.

Playing It Hot

It's appalling what verbal and printed baloney a lot of us are willing to believe these days. A pamphlet produced by the Consumers Rights Committee out of Washington, attacking the boycott of California table grapes, is a perfect example.

The pamphlet's caption reads: "Violence at the Supermarket!!! ... Why the grape boycott must be ended." On the cover are pictured some stringy haired, hunchbacked creatures carrying placards and clubs, wearing no shoes, or shoes without shoestrings. They are confronting a nice, decent law-abiding housewife and her little girl, who want to enter the supermarket.

Smoke is shown filtering from the market, and part of the pamphlet says the boycott is enforced by "intimidation of customers, by harassment of store employees, by firebombings and other forms of violence."

Americans haven't seen that sort of thing since World War I, with the ugly German imperialists staring pig-faced out of some old poster, or World War II when the government pictured all Japanese as sneaky little men with blow guns.

Hopefully, we can see through that kind of ugly, and perhaps dangerous, propaganda. Certainly, no one would suggest that the freedom of speech be abridged, but these are days of intense pressures. We should remember to keep our heads, with the sound and fury all around us.

Reflections

Those Baby-Sitting Blues

By Joyce Hagelthorn

If there's one thing my older friends keep telling me, it's that kids finally do grow up.

For 23 years I've been waiting and I've got a sneaking hunch that my kids mature late. I mean, how many other mothers have to hire babysitters for their 6-foot kids?

The only sign of maturity is when the bigger kids throw tantrums and bang their heads up against the wall, if the baby-sitter isn't under 18 and "stacked."

Baby-sitters love to sit for me. Every summer I have pretty little girls in their mini-skirts, and their long flowing hair, calling and applying for the job.

This summer I picked the prettiest one that came along. I was a bit leery because as any parent knows, what he thinks is beautiful may be downright awful to his younger set.

The morning she came I went upstairs and poured a gallon of water on the oldest kid, and he came up slugging. He slugged his little brother right in the temple, which woke him up with such a start, he jerked out a leg, that went between the slats of the bunk bed, and hit brother No. 2 in the teeth, which got him roaring out of bed and rushing around without realizing that anyone wanted him to wake up.

After things quieted down a bit, I told them the baby-sitter was downstairs, and I clapped on my earmuffs.

Not a sound. All of the kids just stood around and stared...and I knew she had been accepted...especially after one of the bigger kids leaped into her lap and wouldn't get down.

The first days went beautifully. The kids were happy...especially the two teen-age visitors from Tennessee who hadn't had a baby-sitter since they were in their thumb-sucking stage, and I felt quite at ease, tangled up in my typewriter, five miles away from home.

Then came the day I walked in to utter chaos. Size 12 shoes sat in the middle of the living room with peanut-butter crusts, and stale hamburgers sitting in them. Beds were unmade and blue-jeans and windbreakers shared the top of the piano.

And the baby-sitter had gone home.

I rounded up my youngest who hasn't learned for sure that parents are to be lied to, and asked her why Mary had neglected the pick-up, the beds and the laundry.

"Oh Mommie," my little one said. "Don't blame Mary. She was just too pooped."

Visualizing the healthy, all-American beauty, the young sitter certainly was, and looking at the utter chaos, I wondered what could have pooped her.

"Well," my little one said with a great deal of smacking of her lips. "Freddie wouldn't fix his engine nowhere but the living room, and she had to sweep and sweep, 'cause of all that engine stuff."

"Then she went outside to sweep the steps and Allan locked the door on her, and she shimmied up the porch and had to climb in the window. She was getting pretty tired then, but what really did it was what happened next."

"My gosh," I yelled. "what could have happened next?"

"When she had to climb the tree to get her shoes," my little one smacked. "That really pooped her."

Sex Education Blocked Off

By Jim Fitzgerald

There is urrently a lot of fuss about whether Junior should get his sex education in school or from the big kid next door. I say he should get it in school because it is getting harder and harder to get it anywhere else.

I speak from bitter experience. Modern architecture has just knocked the foundation from under my sex education. The publisher has bricked up the huge window through which I have watched the girls go by for the past 18 years.

This was an unusually splendid window for girl watching. It was on the ground floor, facing the main street. Most important, it was 10 feet high and probably 30 feet wide. It took a slow moving, hip wiggling girl a full half-minute to get out of view. You could see her coming, then full profile, then going. You could see her from shoes to hairdo. When the right girl walked by, it was a marvelous occasion indeed.

(I should add right here that when I say "girl" I am not necessarily talking about teenagers although they can certainly be lovely things when they comb the hair out of their mouths. Some of the finest looking women in my hometown are over 30, even over 40, and it is a definite pleasure to ogle them).

Anyway, these days I am working harder and enjoying it lesser. You should see what I have to watch girls through. There are 2 thin slits of glass in the new brick front, widely separated. It's like seeing a doll speed by in a convertible. Before you can decide if you're in love again, she's gone from your life forever. If something promising flits by one skinny window, I must turn my head quickly to catch a second glimpse in the other crack. There's no more sitting back and enjoying the scenery in leisure. I must keep alert, forever flicking my eyes from window to window in fear I'll miss a micro-skirt.

The whole procedure makes me feel sneaky — less like a connoisseur of beauty and more like a dirty old man.

What really hurts is that this brick-blow comes at a particularly bad time. As steady readers will recall, I am a leg man, brought up on Betty Grable. Oh, big bosoms are fine and I never threw rocks at Jane Russell. But they can be faked whereas a shapely leg has got to be legitimate. Wax flowers are nice from a distance, but I wouldn't want my brother to look for bees in one.

So obviously, for me the mini-skirt was the greatest invention since seamless hose. With summer upon us, I was anticipating a marvelous season of trying to distinguish shorts from culottes from skirts. But here I am, bricked away from the world I love. I think my publisher reads too much Edgar Allen Poe.

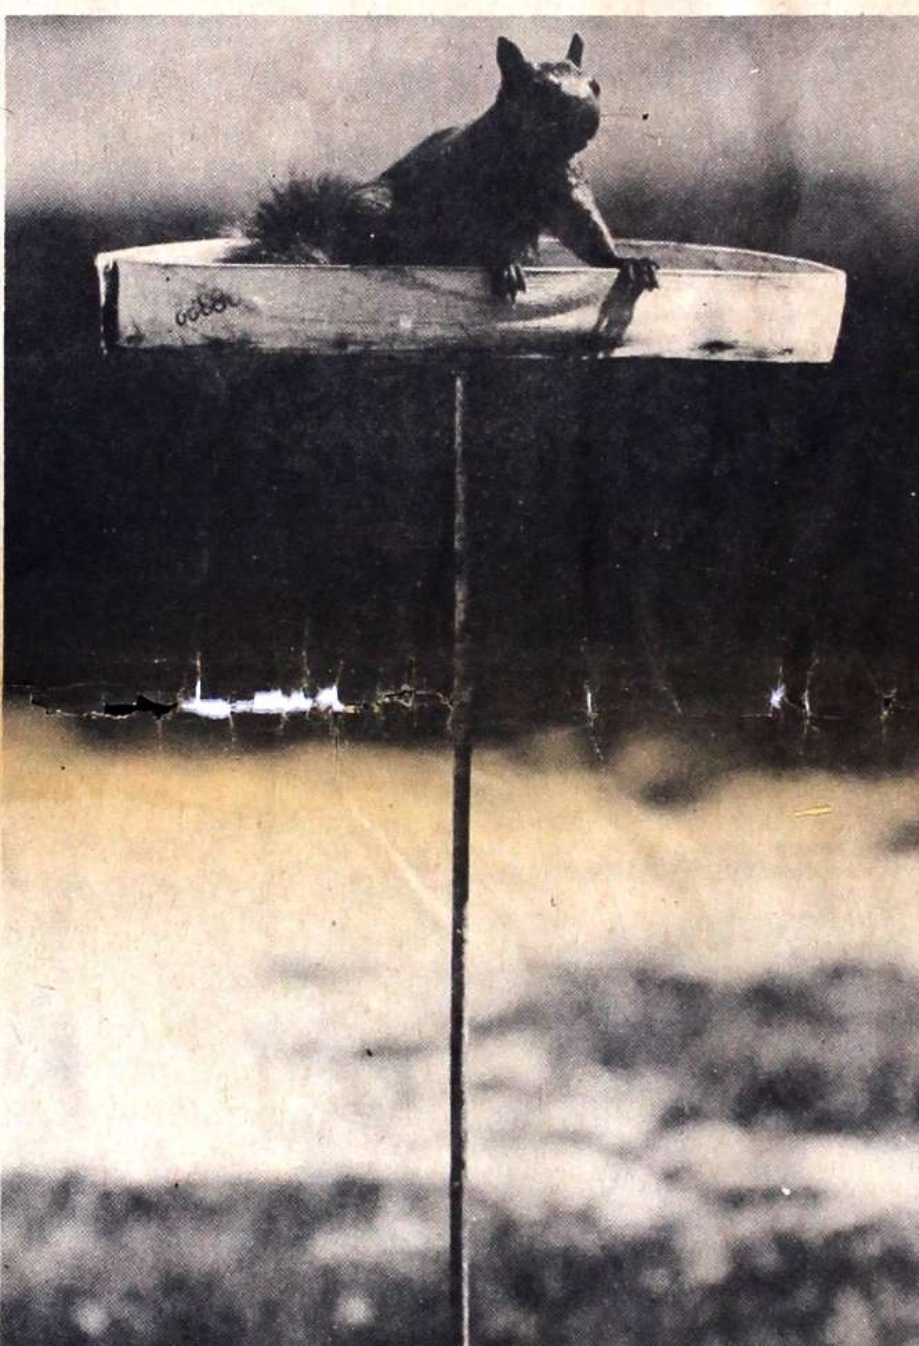

It was bad enough, a few years ago, when he installed Venetian blinds. I often went home with striped eyeballs. Now I face a blank wall and can barely see a skinny window from the outer corner of each eye. I'll be going home with an eyeball over each ear.

There may be some of you who will claim that girl watching has nothing to do with sex education. You go to your school and I'll go to mine.

Each year it seems to get tougher for a man to proceed Onward and Upward.

Many Say ABM Is Not Needed

By Dick McKnight

The results of Congressman William D. Ford's (D-15th District) recent poll of political opinion among his constituents showed that area residents oppose deployment of the Sentinel-Safeguard anti-ballistic missile ABM system by a 3-1 margin.

Stacked up against some claims heard recently that the American people as a whole favor at least the mini-missile version proposed by President Richard M. Nixon, this seems to say that Western Wayne County voters may not be exactly typical.

But they are in good company.

The National Citizens Committee Concerned About Deployment of the ABM, headquartered in New York City, recently issued a voluminous package of information about the ABM proposal.

All of the quotes etc. I will use are from this organization's compilation of information. I dislike writers who don't quote their sources, but lead you to believe they did all of the research themselves.

The cover letter with the information is from Arthur J. Goldberg, formerly of the United Nations and the United States Supreme Court. On the executive committee of the organization are such prestigious persons as Arjay Miller of Ford Motor Co., Whitney Young Jr. of the Urban League, and W. Averell Harriman, former chief negotiator in the Paris Peace Talks.

Senator Jacob Javits (R.-N.Y.) — "Once we are dealing in assured multiples of 'overkill' there seems to be no wisdom and no special patriotism in attempting to panic the nation with false notions of loss of 'nuclear superiority.'" (6-21-68)

Senator Gaylord Nelson (D.-Wisconsin) — "Now, again, under the guise of defending ourselves against the same enemy, China, we are launching a little 'thin missile system' that, like the Vietnam War, will balloon into a big thing — and, like Vietnam, five years from now we will all be saying, how in Heaven's name did we ever get trapped into this?" (4-18-69)

Even if we needed the ABM system, would the one proposed actually work? Here's what more senators have said.

Senator Clifford Case (R.-N.J.) — "I have been urging postponement for more than a year, for one basic reason: we have no real assurance that the proposed system will work once installed. On the contrary, there is good reason to believe that the five to ten billion cost of the Sentinel system will buy less, not more, security. This because the Soviets can be expected to compensate by substantially increasing their offensive nuclear forces." (2-11-69)

Senators Charles E. Goodell (R.-N.Y.); Marlow W. Cook (R.-N.Y.); William B. Saxbe (R.-Ohio); and Mark O. Hatfield (R.-Oregon) — "Because we feel the case for ABM is still full of gaping holes, we believe it our duty to oppose its deployment at the present time. We are Republican Senators, but we feel the ABM issue transcends partisan considerations. We simply owe it to American taxpayers not to vote gigantic sums for a project that may simply end as no more than another museum piece." (4-15-69)

And some other comments:

Senator Joseph M. Montoya, (D.-N. Mex.) — "Now there are again signs that, if the 'thin' system is constructed it will later be expanded to a 'thick system' — at a cost of up to $400 billion." (3-13-69)

United Auto Workers International Executive Board: "We urge the President to respond to this national protest with an order cancelling the ABM program. We urge him to turn away from a useless and unnecessary arms buildup and move vigorously toward the tasks of peace."

President Dwight D. Eisenhower: "I tend to agree with McNamara when he minimized the need for the thing ... It (the ABM) won't appreciably improve our defensive posture. And anyway, it's axiomatic that the best defense is a perfect offense. We've got that." (January, 1968).

No one really knows why the ABM system is needed and should be provided to continue our support of the military-industrial complex in America. Instead, it may be the proverbial last straw that will cause Congress to look more closely at our wasteful defense spending.

BLOCKHEADS

I may not be smart, but I think I can prove
To a lot of my friends, I am still in the groove;
They laugh at my rhyming and say it is punk.
And ought to be censored, or listed as junk.

I may use a hyphen where commas should be,
Or sometimes say him when I should have said he,
My pronouns and adverbs come right to the point,
In spite of the fact they are all out of joint.

They call me a blockhead but little they know
When a blockhead begins, just how far he may go;
The most famous blockheads which I ever heard,
Are Charlie McCarthy, and Mortimore Sneerd.

Now take Edgar Bergen, just where would he be,
Without his two blockheads astride of his knee?
If fellows like these can become a success,
Then I have a chance as a poet - I guess!

DEATH

The sun was glowing,
and the heat scorched us,
It seemed as though everything was against us,
We plundered our way deep into the abyss of the jungle
The jungle with its many sounds, seemed to be saying, "death lies ahead,"
How I long to be with her,
I can hear her gentle voice,
But I must do my duty,
Then I shall be by her side again,
Quit calling to me darling,
I'll be home again soon.
Things will be as they were before,
Peace shall surround us.

Summer Job Need For Youth Cited

Summer is the season when formal education across the U.S. comes to a near standstill. It is a happiness time for the small fry, and for a few of the larger ones who have the means to make it so.

Traditionally it is the season for travel; of cottages and beaches, and of shorts and camps and sunburn.

But for one group in particular the summer season brings forth mixed emotions and perplexing problems. This is the group of youth in the 16-21 age bracket, comprised of high school and college students who are looking for summer jobs. ***

SUMMER JOBS for these youth is vital. For many it represents the only means of returning to school in the fall. For others it is a necessity in helping ends meet at home.

Without jobs some of the youth may turn to the streets from sheer boredom and become problem youth. All who want to work should have the opportunity to do so.

The President's Summer Youth Opportunity Campaign is designed to this end. It is an admirable campaign to which every responsible citizen in the Nation should give enthusiastic response. ***

EVERY BUSINESSMAN and every individual can join merely by determining to be of help in his or her community.

It is the American way of life to offer youth a helping hand. We urge every responsible citizen in this community to maintain this tradition.

Let no job that a youth can perform be left undone in our community this summer.

Couple Honeymoon In Northern Michigan

In a six o'clock spring ceremony performed at St. Aloysius Catholic Church, in Romulus, Joy Ellen Rhodes and Bernard Robert Belaire, Jr., both of Belleville, were united in holy matrimony. The Rev. Joseph F. Kernosek heard the double ring vows.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Rhodes, of 6773 Sheldon Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Robert Belaire, Sr., of 600 Sumpter Road, are parents of the young couple.

THE BRIDE walked up the aisle wearing a white crepe and satin gown with long angel sleeves. The empire bodice was styled with a square neckline and was gathered at the back to resemble a train. Lavender ribbon was used to accent the neck and waistline.

Her elbow veil of silk illusion cascaded from a beaded leaf headpiece and she carried one dozen long-stemmed white roses tied with white satin ribbon.

Cynthia Neddco, of New Boston, was maid of honor, in a lavender dress fashioned along empire lines with an overlay of white lace and a paneled train at the back.

Similarly dressed were the bride's two sisters, Gerry and Mary Rhodes.

THE BRIDEGROOM asked his brother-in-law, Fred Kuck, of Novi, to be best man. Ushers were Ron Kinkel, of Utica, and David Belaire, a cousin from Saline.

Mrs. Rhodes wore for the occasion a pink dress with white accessories. A coral coat-dress ensemble with white accessories was the choice of Mrs. Belaire. Both mothers wore silver carnation corsages.

The new Mrs. Belaire is a 1968 graduate of Belleville High School now attending Eastern Michigan University. She is also employed at Willow Run Airport in the air pollution division. Her husband graduated from Utica High School in 1966, attended Macomb College, and is employed at Unlimited Mobile Home Service.

Auto thefts are very difficult to stop. Short of welding your car to the nearest fire hydrant, there is probably nothing you can do to prevent thieves from stealing your car—but you can cut down on your chances. Keys being left in the ignition and doors left unlocked are the two biggest factors. If at all possible, choose to park in well-lighted, well-trafficked areas. Lock all packages and valuable items in the trunk. And finally, lock up and take your keys with you. When you return, your car will probably still be there!

MRS. BRIAN E. WIRTS

Brian Wirts, Karen Rodeff Married At St. Anthony's

Two Belleville High School graduates of 1967, Karen Lynne Rodeff and Brian Edward Wirts, were united in marriage June 14 at St. Anthony's Catholic Church. The Rev. Albert J. Foltz officiated at the six o'clock ceremony before an altar adorned with bouquets of white gladioli.

Double ring vows were exchanged between the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rodeff, of 125 W. Columbia Avenue, Belleville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wirts, of 40020 Robbe Road, Belleville.

FOR HER wedding day, Karen selected an A-line creation of acetate rayon crepe and Chantilly lace. The high rise bodice was fashioned with a scalloped Sabrina neckline and traditional wristpoint sleeves. A paneled train, banded with scallops of lace to match the lace insert, fell from the shoulders.

Her shoulder-length veil of nylon illusion was caught to a double Dior bow and her bouquet was comprised of cascading white carnations.

Preceding the bride and her father to the sanctuary was the bride's sister, Mrs. Joseph Pych, of Ypsilanti. As honor attendant she donned an empire frock of coral pink chiffon over taffeta styled with wide cuffed bishop sleeves. The bouquet she held was a cascade of pink carnations.

Mrs. Gary Wirts, of New Boston, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was identically dressed for her role as bridesmaid.

All Around The Town . . . with Lee

HOME AGAIN, HOME AGAIN

THEIR EUROPEAN jaunt over, John and Marge Roberts arrived on home soil Friday after a month abroad. Winging their way to London, they spent their first day touring by car with Westminster Abbey, Mulberry House (the Queen Mother's residence), and Buckingham Palace among the many sites visited. Another day they visited Paddington Station where John lived during his stint with the R.A.F. in World War II; shopped at world-famous Harrod's; and attended the theater seeing "Not Now, Darling" at the Strand.

Then it was onto Helsinki where they were met by their 'adopted daughter', Tytti Kanerva, who'd lived with the Roberts' while attending Belleville High as an exchange student. After being introduced to her parents, the Oliva Kanervas, they spent two days in the area before continuing onto Southern Finland with Tytti in tow. (The trip was Tytti's graduation gift from her foster parents.)

In Hameenlinna, they stopped to meet Tytti's grandmother, Mrs. Maria Ylonen, who had a freshly-baked cake ready and waiting for Marge's birthday (which was June 8). There was also a bouquet of 12 red roses to welcome her.

After a week in Finland the trio continued on their way to Frankfurt, Germany where they headquartered for a week while enjoying a 14-hour cruise down the Rhine River and an auto trip to picturesque Heidelberg. They also had a surprise meeting with their Lake Pointe Pass neighbor, Janna Wolters, a stewardess for Universal Airlines, who was in from a flight and staying at the same hotel. Janna and Tytti, incidentally, were classmates at BHS along with the Roberts' daughter, Vicki Vinson Barnett.

Following their sojourn in Germany the threesome parted ways—Tytti returning home and John and Marge returning to London. On their second visit they included Windsor Castle and Runnymede, where the memorial to J.F.K. was dedicated and where the Air Force monument stands.

Renting a car, they drove north to Coventry where they were dinner guests of friends, the Gordon Finchs, and where they took in the many interesting spots including the magnificent new Coventry Cathedral. Their next stop was Bath where they visited and dined with the William Illeffs.

Freezing Facts

Isn't it a nuisance not to be able to take two or three chops or steaks out of a freezer package? It's no problem if steaks, chops, burgers, cutlets, etc. are separated by a layer of wrapping material. Be certain to replace the original moisture-vapor proof wrapping on the remaining meat left in the freezer package to avoid freezer burn.

You pay nothing for equipment or installation for 6 months. Then you start payments on your Gas bill, spreading them over 36 months if you like.

CONGRESSMAN FORD REPORTS

Survey Shows Voters Oppose ABM, Surtax

Constituents of Congressman William D. Ford (D) 15th District, are strongly opposed to the Anti-Ballistic-Missile Program, renewal of the income surtax, farm-subsidy programs and a lower voting age.

They overwhelmingly favor tax reform, increased individual tax exemptions, more Federal Aid to education, popular election of the President and Vice-President, and Congressional approval before U.S. troops are committed to fight in foreign countries.

These were the highlights of Congressman Ford's annual questionnaire survey, conducted early in the spring. More than 16,000 persons responded to the opinion poll, the highest number since Congressman Ford inaugurated the annual survey five years ago.

THE RETURNS were tabulated by volunteer workers in Congressman Ford's district office, and are being sent to all 15th District residents in the form of a Newsletter. The results also have been published in the Congressional Record.

Ford's constituents voted three-to-one against the ABM program, more than two-to-one against the surtax renewal and farm subsidies, and nearly two-to-one against lowering the voting age to 18 years.

On the question of foreign aid, 45 percent voted to reduce the program, 20 percent to continue it at the present level, and three percent favored an increase in the program. Thirty-two percent voted to restrict foreign aid to non-military items only.

Slightly over half of the participants favored creation of a government-owned postal service corporation, while 23 percent voted to reorganize the Post Office Department but retain it as a public service partially supported by taxes. Sixteen percent favored retaining the present system, and taking funds from general tax revenues to make up deficits.

SEVEN PERCENT voted to make the postal service a wholly tax-supported, non-revenue service such as public highways.

Asked to name the three most important problems facing our nation, more than 6,000 listed the War in Viet Nam. Other top vote-getters were Crime, 5,141; Tax Reform, 4,142; Inflation, 4,002; Civil Rights, 3,650; Education and Mental Health, 2,706; Youth Unrest, 2,135; and Poverty, 2,099.

Commenting on his own views on the questions asked, Congressman Ford noted that he has publicly opposed deployment of the ABM system, voted to set a $20,000 limit on farm-subsidy payments to individual farmers, and introduced legislation to close tax loopholes and increase the individual exemption from $600 to $1,200.

Ford voted against the surtax when it was imposed last year, and has announced that he is opposed to President Nixon's request to extend the tax for another year.

They favored tax reform by a thundering 95 percent, and increased exemptions by 91 percent; voted for expanded Federal aid to education by nearly three-to-one, and supported popular election for President and Vice-President by nearly six-to-one.

A majority of 71 percent favored a Congressional Resolution requiring the President to obtain approval of Congress before committing U.S. troops to fight in foreign countries.

ON A question involving U.S. space programs, 52 percent were in favor of continuing the program at its present funding of $3.8 billion annually. Twenty-six percent voted to reduce space allocations, 14 percent would increase space allocations, and eight percent wanted to abandon the space program altogether.

Only 31 percent voted to continue the present Selective Service System, which permits student deferments. Forty-one percent favored a random-chance lottery system, with no student deferments, and 28 percent supported a professional, all-volunteer Army in place of a draft.

HE HAS also announced that he will oppose President Nixon's proposal to create a Postal Service Corporation, charging that the plan is full of loopholes that will make it unworkable and unfair both to the public and to postal employees.

Ford has co-sponsored a joint House-Senate Resolution calling for direct popular election of the President and Vice-President, with a provision for a run-off election if no candidate receives more than 40 percent of the vote. He has also co-sponsored a resolution calling for lowering of the voting age to 18.

Communist Film to be Shown Here

BELLEVILLE-A film, "More Deadly Than War," the Communist Revolution in America," will be shown at Belleville High School on Thursday, June 26, at 8 p.m.

The noted lecturer, G. Edward Griffin shows how the two pronged offensive, the violent and non-violent revolutions complement each other until TOTAL government (Communism) is achieved.

The one-hour fifteen minute film is a must for serious, responsible Americans.

The film is being sponsored by the Belleville Train Committee (To Restore American Independence Now) and there is no admission charge.

Nixon that non-military foreign aid should be continued at the present level." For said, "which is about the same level established during the last years of the Johnson Administration. But I do think that it is time for a good hard look at our entire foreign aid program, and what it is accomplishing. "SO FAR as space appropriations are concerned, I am pleased and proud of the successful space probes conducted by the United States, but I do think that it may be time to reduce our appropriations, at least temporarily. I say this in light of the growing shortage of money for education and other vital programs designed to solve our problems right here on earth."

Commenting on the Selective Service System, Congressman Ford said:

"I support the idea of a random-chance lottery, along the pattern suggested by Senator Edward M. Kennedy. I would abolish both student and occupational deferments, and I am definitely opposed to the concept of an all-volunteer, professional Army."

FAIRLANE THEATER

NEW THEATER--This 850-seat structure, the Fairlane Theater, will open in early July. It is located at Ford and Telegraph, Dearborn Heights. It has parking for 500 cars and is the first walk-in theater in the city. It was developed by Suburban Detroit Theatres and Community Theatres.

Art Shows To Be Given In Dearborn

A series of art shows will be presented on the University of Michigan, Dearborn Campus during the next year.

Arranging the diversified shows will be Mrs. Deanna Sperka of Oak Park, named recently as campus art consultant. She will be responsible for contacting and displaying the works of prominent Detroit area artists.

Mrs. Sperka, an artist herself, has shown paintings in both Detroit and New York. She has also served as art co-ordinator of the Jewish Community Center in Detroit.

Plans call for displaying original prints in the Dearborn Campus library, located in the student services building. The shows will be open to the public.

Currently displayed in the library are 16 prints entitled, "American Eye," a series of contemporary American work on loan from the London Grafica Arts Inc.

Eddy Arnold Show Slated at Oakland

Eddy Arnold, who has been making records and setting records for the past 20-odd years, will appear at Oakland University's (Rochester, Mich.) Baldwin Pavilion on Saturday, June 28, at 8:30 P.M. as the next star attraction in the Meadow Brook Special Events Series.

Arnold is clearly one of the top three recording artists of all time. In 1967, he was named "Entertainer of the Year" by the Country Music Association. In 1966, he was elected to the Country Music Hall of Fame, a fitting tribute to the man who has personally brought country music to millions of people all over the world and away from its hillbilly sound and image.

Arnold's singing and performances have become more cosmopolitan, more traditionally "pop," but they have retained the down-to-earth quality of the Country and Western genre.

Tickets for the show are available now at Hudson's, Grinnell's and at the Meadow Brook Theatre box office.

Jazz Festival To Be Explosive

There's been an explosion in the music business. Nobody has gotten hurt, but a lot of walls have come tumbling down.

The walls have been imaginary ones, put there by people whose own limitations made it necessary for them to define or categorize. Thus jazz was jazz, pop was pop, country was country, and so on.

As anyone with half an ear can tell you, that isn't so any more. Different musical forms have become so intermingled that labels are useless. Music is simply music, which is the way it should be.

You'll have a chance to hear for yourself when the Detroit Jazz Festival comes to Olympia Stadium on Sunday, July 13, at 8 P.M. Tickets to the festival are now available at Olympia Stadium and all Hudson's Stores in the Detroit area.

Fans should get the complete musical spectrum, from groups which include Sly and the Family Stone, Miles Davis, Nina Simone, Mongo Santamaria, and the Newport All-Stars, featuring Red Norvo, Tal Farlow, Ruby Braff, George Wein, Larry Ridley, and Don Lamond.

Work to Start Soon On Quo Vadis Addition

Construction at the Quo Vadis in Westland will begin shortly on a third floor addition, which will house a 1,000 seat, ultra-modern theatre possessing a futuristic look for tomorrow.

Complete wall-to-wall carpeting is one of the many innovations planned for the new theatre which will be known as the "The Rooftop".

It will be the only high-rise movie theatre project in the world housing four separate theatres, all playing first-run attractions, under one roof. It is already enjoying that distinction with its present three-theatre set-up.

The Quo Vadis on the ground floor has 1,200 seats and the Quo Vadis Penthouse I and II on the second floor each have a seating capacity of 360. Together with the adjoining Algiers Drive In, there are four theatres on the same plot of ground.

The forthcoming Rooftop will increase that figure to five.

The Quo Vadis Movie Entertainment Center also boasts a cocktail lounge, the "Over 21" Club, which is identified with the project proper and easily accessible from all three theatres.

An escalator will provide transportation to all theatres and the cocktail lounge when the Rooftop is completed.

The grand opening is scheduled for late 1969 or early 1970.

Tentative plans for the new Rooftop Theatre call for a possible rooftop beer garden and walkway, skirting the entire front of the building (on the third floor) where patrons may while away the time with beer, pretzels and potato chips, before, during or after performances, reachable from any part of the building.

'Plaza Suite' Is Fine Wrap-Up to Fisher Season

By ALAN KROKER, ANP Amusement Critic

Neil Simon has a rare facility for blending gags into suitable story frameworks and it's made him the king of Broadway. "Plaza Suite," wrapping up the Fisher season, is a Simon bonus, three plays in one, all set in a plush suite of the grand dame of New York hotels.

(In the Allen Park Plaza)

The suite's first occupant is a businessman irked that his wife chose this time to have their house painted. She is thinking only that this is their anniversary and it's the hotel where they spent their honeymoon. Nash isn't really trying to hurt his wife; he just doesn't know how to be nice to her any longer. And at last, amid the not-so-funny kidding about his wife's flighty memory, emerges the old picture of an aging man fighting to stay young by having an affair with his secretary. Anyone who thinks Simon is all froth and no meat is invited to witness this.

The real fun comes when a couple marrying off their daughter at the Plaza take over the suite. Minsey has locked herself in the bathroom and won't come out despite her parents' coaxing, reasoning, pleading, demanding, and threatening. Daddy tries to batter down the door but he isn't that young any more. He tries to get to her from an outside ledge and it starts to rain. Daddy rips his dress suit and soaks it, mommy cracks her diamond ring-and daddy keeps totaling up the food being consumed by the guests downstairs. Finally her shrimp of a fiancée appears, tells her to "cool it" and out she comes.

The other play is less successful; a cliché Hollywood producer seduces a coy matron he used to date in high school. Forrest Tucker and Betty Garrett turn in outstanding jobs in the three dissimilar roles. "Plaza Suite" is the Fisher's highwater mark this season.

"IF IT'S TUESDAY, THIS MUST BE BELGIUM," a group of tourists ponder during an 18-day tour of Europe, which sums up how hectic these tours can be. "Tuesday" offers a prize package touring England, Germany, Italy and the Low Countries under the wing of Ian McShane, engagingly portraying the world's most lecherous tour guide. His coterie includes Susanne Pleshette, fleeing from an uncertain engagement she wants to think about and who spends most of her time fending off the guide and Mildred Natwick, inexhaustible, who insists that Charlie spend his time conducting tours when he'd rather spend it with the girl he has stashed away in every city along the route.

Marty Ingels turns in a masterful characterization as a girl-crazy type who keeps taking pictures of girls to show to the boys back home; that's all he gets, pictures, but he makes up lies to go with them. Rena Rose gets separated from her husband and winds up on a Japanese tour. Murray Hamilton keeps knocking Europe to wife Peggy Cass while they both try to control a daughter who has met a hippie. Best, perhaps, is Sandy Baron, whose mother insists he look up family in Europe; he does and winds up jumping out a bathroom window into a canal to avoid a hasty engagement to a cousin.

Forget the plot. There is none. The story is a patchwork of hits and pieces. But the characters are so funny it doesn't matter.

THE ADS FOR "Eye of the Cat," indicate that it was written by Joseph Stefano, who did the screenplay for "Psycho." "Cat" proves that Stefano should stick to adapting the works of others for the screens and not monkey with his own ideas.

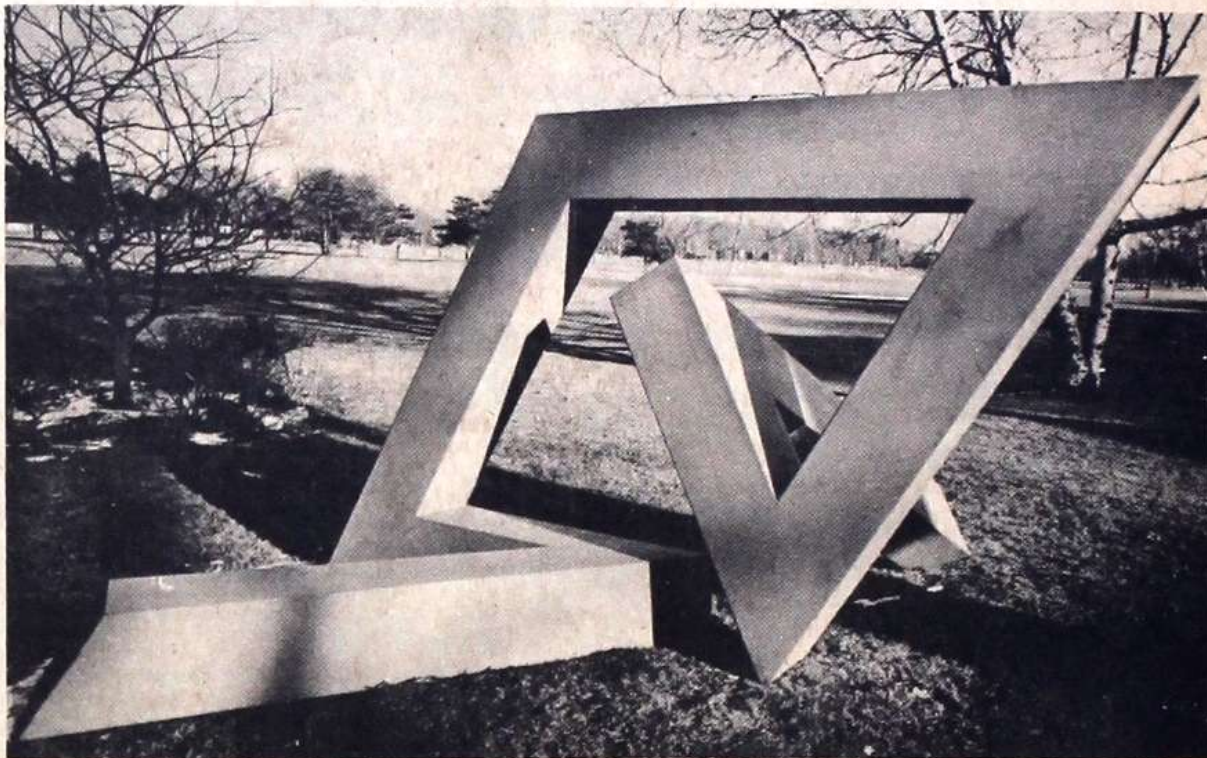

Just imagine hair dresser Gayle Hunnicutt who wants to murder a wealthy client, Eleanor Parker, confined to a wheel chair with emphysema and never too far away from oxygen. (She coughs once in a while but mostly looks like she could compete on a roller derby team.) So our blood thirsty hair dresser dredges up the "old" lady's estranged nephew, Michael Sarrazin, to first get the old lady to change her will in favor of the nephew whom she worships but who had deserted her.

The previous legatees were a bunch of cats who live in auntie's house, meow like banshees and eat like somebody told them they were lions. And to add to the fun, when Sarrazin was an infant a cat climbed in his crib and he thought the cat was going to suck his breath. To get him back, the aunt has to get rid of the cats first. And she does change her will. So how come the cats wind up back in the cellar that night and in case anyone has had the fortitude to read the plot summary this far,

I'll mercifully quit right here with a brief comment that the best acting comes from the cats.

MAGI WERE ANCIENT Persian priests, augurs, magicians and astrologers. (The term was later broadened as in the case of the Magi who visited the Christ Child). This is mentioned so that there is at least one coherent sentence in this review of "The Magus" (that's just one of them), at the Madison. Is Anthony Quinn a Magus? The title had better be a clue because the picture is no help. He has Michael Caine perplexed as so are we. Maybe he's a magician who has conjured Candice Bergen up out of thin air and she will vanish at will. Or maybe he is a psychiatrist treating a disturbed Miss Bergen through a fascinating type of shock treatment. Or is he a director putting an actress on film?

The locale is Greece where Quinn ostensibly was forced to collaborate with the Germans during World War II and through his lack of fortitude to kill three resistance fighters lets the Germans kill 80 villagers. Or did it happen? You can't be sure. You can't be sure of anything. The Magus is in some ways a very beautiful picture but then you wonder even further. Does the picture exist? Did you really go to the movies that evening? Are you sure you didn't actually stay at home?

TO BE SHOWN SOON—This piece of art, the "Zee's," will be among several large works of art displayed in July and August at the "Sculpture Downtown" exhibit in Detroit. The outdoor exhibit is the labor of Mike Todd, a former artist-in-residence at Cranbrook Academy in Bloomfield Hills.

Jack Harris Stars At 24 Karat Club

Jack Harris, singing star of his own "Jack Harris Show" on Detroit radio station WJR, will perform under the 24 Karat Club spotlight for nearly two weeks.

This is Harris's fourth engagement at Harold Wiggle's popular niter, 16890 Telegraph at W. McNichols. He will use the same relaxed format that has been his trademark before the WJR mike for years and, more recently, as an entertainer before large groups at the Detroit Hilton hotel.

The veteran emcee and recording artist, Detroit-born, is a baritone who has been described as "sounding like an understudy for Bing Crosby." Whatever description is used, however, it boils down to a simple phrase: he is good.

Also on the program will be Harry Harris (no relation), the 77-year-old original partner of Jimmy Durante, singing songs and parodies of the gay 90's; Eddie Collins, wizard of the banjo, and the popular Lennie Schick Quartet, playing music for the acts and for dancing.

Stage shows are at 8:30, 10 p.m. and 12:30 a.m. on Friday and Saturdays; and at 9:30 and 11:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

Reservations are recommended. Call 538-4455.

AIRLINES FLYING SCHOOLS AIR CARGO
FLIGHT SERVICES MILITARY

KING SIZE JUMBO JET—A far cry from only a few years ago. Making its debut at Metro Airport, American Flyers Airlines DC-8 Super-63 leaves no doubt in anyone's mind as to its size. The aircraft will carry 250 passengers and fly non-stop from Metro to London, England, in about seven hours.

American Flyers Airlines Gives New Charter Service

THE LARGEST AIRCRAFT in commercial service today recently inaugurated service into Detroit Metro Airport. The service is flown by American Flyers Airlines, whose aircraft have been a familiar sight in charter movements at Metro for many years.

The new airliner, A Douglas DC-8-Super 63, seats 250 people. The four-engine jet airliner flies with a crew of ten and has a range up to 4,500 miles. One of the first of the Super 63 DC-8's visited the Metro facility a few days prior to the kick-off flight for inspection by members of the travel trade and local executives.

American Flyers Airlines is one of the 13 supplemental airlines certified by the Civil Aeronautics Board, provides charter passenger service from any jetport anywhere in the 50 United States.

With the Detroit facility being one of the three major centers of activity serviced by American Flyers, charters are outbound from Metro Airport in a steady stream to Las Vegas, Jan Juan, Nassau, Jamaica, Hawaii, Mexico, Portugal, Spain, and many other countries. The usual charter fare in group form offers a great saving to the traveler over flying regular carriers on this type of venture.

John R. Smith Jr., American Flyers regional manager in Detroit, relative to the importance of the Super DC-8 acquired by American Flyers, said, "More and more people are learning the inexpensive cost of flying on American Flyers charter flights. The new DC-8's will enable to increase our passenger capacity about 80 percent and will be better able to provide in flight accommodations and expanded service in the Detroit area."

Smith went on, "As a certified supplemental air carrier, American Flyers can price its air transportation so that people in appropriate groups may take either longer weekends or extended vacations for just over half of what a regular trunk carrier would charge, and in the same modern up-to-date aircraft that most any of the general airline companies can boast of. On this type of charter flight the customers pay a lower price because the plane is generally filled and thus this can be simply reflected in a saving that is passed along to all the passengers."

The new DC-8 Super 63 displays the airline's new corporate logo and is outfitted ready for initial charter service. This new aircraft arrival is a part of the major expansion plan now underway for the fall of 1969 and all of 1970. The bulk of American Flyers fleet continues to be Boeing 727 jets.

The AFA became of note five years when they were chartered to fly England's famed musical group on their first tour of the United States. The group was the world-famous "Beatles".

The special charter flight carrying the "Beatles" landed at Metro on Sept. 4, 1964, and was greeted by over 10,000 Beatles fans when they taxied up to the executive terminal on Middle Belt Road, even though the time of arrival was two o'clock in the morning. At that time the majority of the AFA fleet were Lockheed Electra aircraft.

Churches, clubs, lodges were quick to see the advantage of a group charter and this travel season of 1969 has been projected to see heaviest number of air travelers ever recorded in the history of air travel.

It is a new flying world for the average club that can plan a trip to Europe with up to 250 passengers can be there in a matter of hours. It means money saved, arriving in a more comfortable condition and, most important of all, the swift time of the modern day actually adds time to your vacation or trip.

American Expands Its Hotel Business

American Airlines, through its "Sky Chief" restaurant subsidiary and "Flagship" hotel system, will operate eight specialty restaurants and a tourist and convention hotel aboard the former Cunard liner "Queen Mary."

The luxury liner is currently undergoing a complete refurbishing prior to its formal public appearance next year as a Long Beach tourist resort. The liner will have a wide variety of convention and banquet facilities.

Upper decks will contain a shopping arcade and swimming pools.

Lower five decks will feature a "museum of the sea."

Spanish Flag Airline Sets Passenger Mark

A DC-8 of Iberia, the Spanish flag airline, recently carried a record 363 persons in a single flight from Equatorial Guinea as part of an evacuation of white residents from that former Spanish colony.

The "Super 63," named "El Espanaleto," carried 346 passengers and a crew of 17 on the flight to Madrid and operated with one stop, at Las Palmas in the Canary Islands.

A political crisis in the new African republic caused the Spanish Aviation Board to permit passenger loads in excess of the normal 260 adult passengers and luggage.

In a series of flights during a twelve-day period, "El Espanaleto" and a standard Iberia DC-8, carried a total of 2,595 refugees from the former colony.

Delta Buys $2.3 Million Air Device

Delta Air Lines has ordered a $2.3 million Lockheed L-1011 flight simulator from the Link Division of the Singer Company. The L-1011 simulator, to be the most advanced of its type in operation, is scheduled for delivery to Delta's Atlanta Training Center in 1971.

David C. Garrett, Jr., Delta's Senior Vice President-Operations, said today that the L-1011 simulator, the result of extensive research, results in "lateral, longitudinal and yaw movements," in addition to the pitch, roll and vertical movements of earlier systems.

Garrett pointed out that Delta's simulator "fleet" will soon be as large as its entire fleet of aircraft was when, in 1929, it began its first passenger operations with three 6-passenger 90-mile-per-hour Travelaire airplanes.

Holiday Inns Open In South Africa

The South African tourist industry, booming, will soon receive an additional "shot-in-the arm" with a Holiday Inn chain throughout the Republic.

Initial development, four Holiday Inns in the province of Natal, will be constructed at an estimated cost of $7 million.

Holiday Inns of South Africa said "this is only a good start." The first four inns will be located in "prime" tourist sites, at Durban, Maritzburg, Umhlanga Rocks, and Pinetown.

South Africa, now with a direct air tie to the U.S., says it "looks forward to increased numbers of U.S. visitors."

RECORD AIR SHIPMENT—Patrick O'Leary, manager for the Wings and Wheels Company, was honored this past week for quarterbacking the largest single air freight movement from nearby Metro Airport. Over 12,000 pieces of cargo composed of automotive parts made up the shipment. His reward was a "portrait of Thomas Jefferson" ... a $100 bill. O'Leary is a Wayneite residing at 3426 Sophia. Award was made by V.P. James Hill.

Another Record

Delta Air Lines, which flew another record air cargo month in April, announced all categories, Air Freight, Air Express, Air Mail, and First Class Mail, "showed significant increases."

T.M. Miller, Delta's senior vice president of marketing, said the airline had flown 8,769,722 ton miles, up 37 percent over the same month last year.

Air Express jumped 28 percent of 1,023,136 ton miles, while Air Mail and First Class Mail each increased 23 percent over April 1968.

Miller attributed the increases to additional flight equipment, increased and improved schedules, greater awareness of Air Freight advantages, increased surface rates, and improved technical facilities.

Need Supersonic Transport

General Jewell C. Maxwell, FAA's Director-Supersonic Transport Development, recently told a California group, "Failure by this country to produce an SST... would surely unravel from the fabric of our national enterprise the strong threads of aeronautical challenge, technical innovation and reputation for superior craftsmanship in new fields which have made American aviation products demand items throughout the free world...."

With its two latest victories, Anchor Block proved to a field of nine teams that it will take much more to remove it from the top of the standings in the Romulus Adult Softball League.

previously undefeated Beck's Diamond 12-5 and erased Orav's 13-4 for its third and fourth victories in the league and remained undefeated in four trips.

Aside from Beck's, Walter's Bar and 5 Point Service are the only other teams which have one loss tagged to their record.

In one of the lowest scoring games of the current campaign, Baum's Funeral Home and Northline Service watched a pitchers' duel between Ivan Kinshella and Bob Hamman which ended in a 4-2 Northline victory.

The victors collected a total of six hits off Kinshella while Baum blasted 10 off the Northline hurler.

A tense second inning, with Larry Pappas and Sam Pullman each rapping singles, led to the victory. Jack Faulkner unleashed a hard hit grounder to second, and after touching second for the first out, the second baseman flipped the ball to first but failed to get the runner and the go-ahead run scored.

In the fourth, Bob Wilderson slammed a home run over the rightfielder's head with no one aboard.

Larry Pappas and Sam Pullman connected for doubles with the latter scoring on an error.

Walter's walloped Baum's 15-3 with a six run fifth inning pulling them to the lopsided victory.

In other action last week, the scores were as follows (Tuesday): Anchor Block 12, Beck Diamond 5; WTA Engineering 2, Five Points 6; Orav's 14, Motor City Containers 10; Northline Service 4, Baum's Funeral Home 2; Walter's Bar 8; Metro Radiator Repair 6.

Thursday's results are as follows: Beck Diamond 5, WTA Engineering 0; Anchor Block 13, Orav's 4; Five Points 8, Northline Service 6; Motor City Container 13, Metro Radiator 5; Walter's Bar 19, Baum's Funeral Home 4.

In Walter's 19-4 victory over Baum's, Ron Rakotz hammered a pair of homers.

BARA: 'BEST TEAM EVER'

Ypsi Post 282 Wins 6th

Ypsi Post 282, made up of local and area baseball stars, is going all out to prove what manager Ed Bara has tagged this year's team "his best". The veteran American Legion manager used this superlative to describe his team after they came up with their sixth consecutive Legion victory last week.

I've coached plenty of boys and teams," said Bara, "and, without hesitation, I must call this one the best I've ever coached," he said.

Apparently, Bara & Co. aren't getting any argument from the Legion either. They rapped Adrian Post 97 for a pair of losses in their latest triumphs.

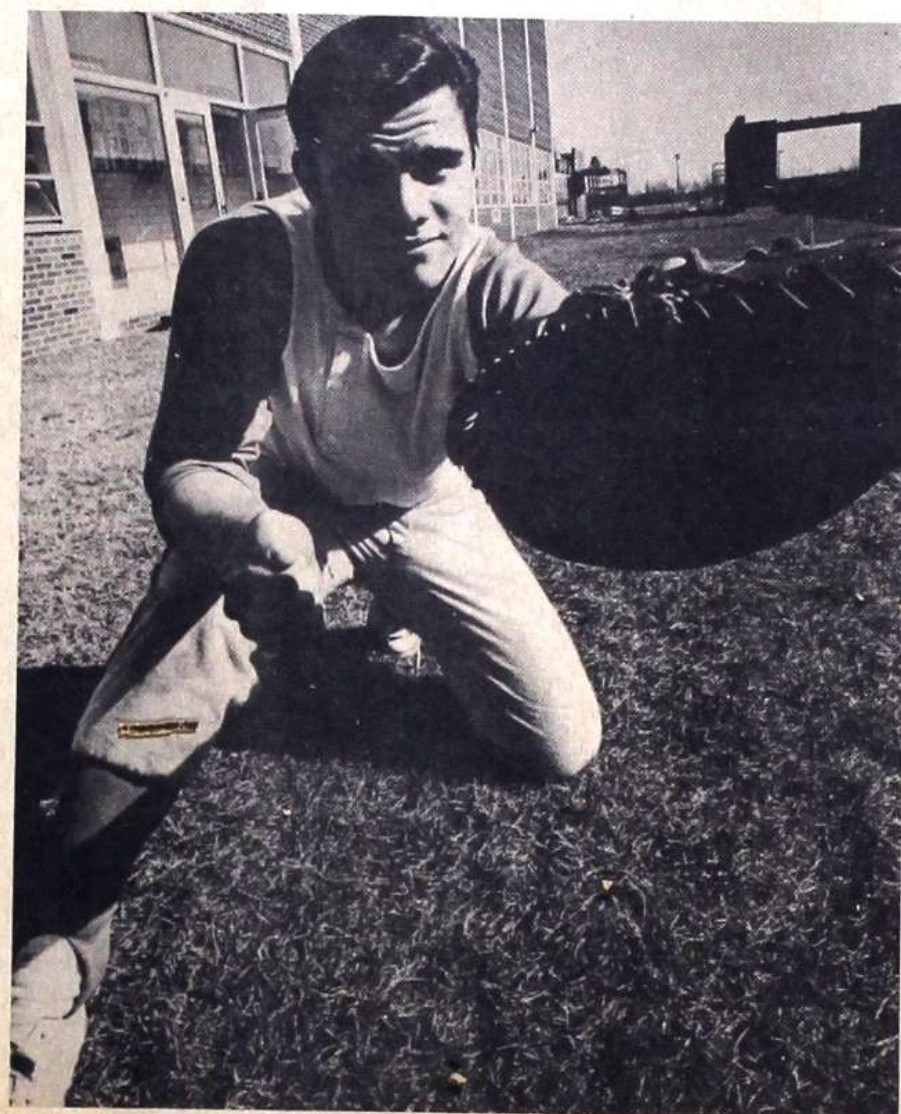

In that doubleheader, Ypsi polished off Adrian 4-1 behind the hitting power supplied by the coach's son, Bruce, and the slugging of Jim Horton, John Yocum and Gary Gentile.

Horton, Bara and Yocum each hammered two hits in their three approaches to the plate while Gentile socked two-for-four.

Horton, Bara and Gentile will also continue their baseball careers together after the Legion season. All three boys have accepted athletic (baseball) scholarships at Eastern Michigan University.

In the opener of the twinbill, Ypsi's Steve Rhodin went all the way and notched 11 whiffs and walked two in a 5-4 victory. He also is undefeated in Legion ball this season.

Horton supplied his teammate with three-for-three, including a EMU ON HIS MIND—Belleville's Gary Gentile, who co-captained the Tigers' and caught this season, was among three local and area players who accepted baseball scholarships to Eastern Michigan University. Teammate Bruce Bara and Ypsilanti's ace hurler Jim Horton also will attend EMU come fall.

157 Vie in Jaycees' Meet

With over 150 determined young athletes taking part, the Romulus Jaycees and the Romulus Parks & Recreation Department had a record turn-out for their annual Junior Champ Track Meet last night.

The meet was held at Romulus Sr. High School and 157 athletes, whose ages ranged from 8 to 18 competed for medals and the right to participate in the State Finals.

"We got off to a slow start," said George Pratt,

Romulus Jaycee chairman, "but the meet was one big success after we got started," he said.

Jim Foley, recreation director, agreed "that it was a very good meet and that everyone who took part came away with something for their efforts."

"We also would like to thank everyone who helped make this meet a successful one," said Foley. "And special thanks must go out to George Sedlacek, meet manager, and Ed Baum, the starter.

"They kept things running smoothly and without them we could have run into difficulty."

The young athletes competed in high jump, shot put, pole vault, long jump, the mile run, 880, 440, 220, the 100 and both boys and girls were eligible to compete for the Olympic-like medals presented by the local Jaycees.

The Wayne Community School District Board of Education dug into its ranks last week and pulled out of one of the winningest wrestling coaches and the head of the mathematics department at Wayne Memorial High School, Ray Rafford, to become the next principal at Nankin Mills Junior High School.

Rafford replaces Jack Buller, who resigned to take a post with the Farmington School system.

The 30-year-old Rafford who for the past four years served successfully as Wayne's head wrestling coach and the head of the math department was approved unanimously by the Board of Education last Monday.

His appointment is effective immediately.

"It is a new challenge that I am eager to accept," said Rafford who stressed that his position will encompass a great deal of paper work.

"I have met with some of the teachers and found them to be very cooperative and, though I have not met the students, I have heard they are the finest.

"If there is an area which will be a major concern, it will be in the area of facilities and equipment," said Rafford. "I will try to update these in the shortest span possible."

Rafford added that he has already plunged into "paper work" involved in setting up the machinery for the new semester.

A graduate of Eastern Michigan University where he earned his bachelor's in physical education in 1962, Rafford took his masters also from EMU in the field of education administration.

He arrived in Wayne in 1965 and, aside from teaching math and later heading that department, he set to work and built one of the finest wrestling teams in the area.

From obscurity, Rafford's Zebras rose to ninth place in the state last year. For his (Continued on Page 18)

4 Stay Unbeaten in Romulus LL

After two weeks of hotly contested competition, four teams have managed to remain undefeated in the Romulus Little League.

Over in the Pony League, the team to catch (and beat) is Solar Machine which emerged from its first four outings with a perfect 4-0 record. Trailing with one loss are Morgan's Pirates and Bar Hops Drive In.

In the Major League, Stewart's Raiders have gone on an early rampage to hold down first with a perfect 3-0 record but Seaway as well as Five Points Bar is nudging for room. They each have 3-1 marks and could easily wind up on top.

Rose-Hill Builders, in the National Division of the Major's, have the distinction of unbeaten streaks but Burcroff's, by virtue of a 4-0 record, is settled on the top of the standings.

Rose-Hill lags with a 3-1 won-lost ratio.

outstanding efforts as a coach, the Associated Newspapers selected him as Coach of the Year for the past two seasons.

Wayne compiled a 12-1 dual meet record last year.

But it was in the area of "making the boy understand, his ability to communicate with the young athlete" that Rafford excelled. His boys admired him for his sincerity and devotion.

"I'm leaving a fine bunch of kids back there at Wayne," said Rafford, whose new position inevitably will leave him little time to coach. "But there comes a time in a man's life when he has to decide which path he should follow, and I feel I can be more helpful to boys and girls by making this difficult choice."

Rafford is married to Barbara and they have a 2½ year-old daughter, Michele. The Raffords make their home in Westland.

Golf Course To Eliminate League Play

The Board of Wayne County Road Commissioners last Thursday, June 19, reaffirmed its action of last January and abolished league play at Warren Valley Golf Course starting with the 1970 season.

William E. Kreger, chairman of the board, and speaking for his fellow commissioners, Michael Berry and Philip J. Neudeck, said the Board took the action unanimously after a lengthy study.

"We felt it would be more equitable to the general public to operate the course on a first come, first serve basis instead of reserving times for the various leagues," Kreger said.

The 36-hole course is operated by the Board as part of the County's park system and is located at 26116 West Warren, Dearborn Heights.

League play will continue for the rest of the current season, allowing a year for league players to relocate and make other arrangements.

The new policy will coincide with that of Detroit's Department of Parks and Recreation regarding leagues.

Big Ones Coming Up at Hazel Park

Eight outstanding stakes and feature races in an eight-day span, from June 28 through July 5, will add fresh, impetus to the thoroughbred meeting that is already barreling along at a clip of better than $1,000,000 a day in mutual handle at the Hazel Park Race Track.

Here is the star-studded line-up:

*Saturday, June 28, the $15,000 added Mt. Clemens Handicap for three year olds and up at six and half furlongs, the $10,000 added Freshman Derby Trial for two year olds at six furlongs, and the $12,500 added Governor's Handicap for Michigan-foaled three year olds and up at a mile and a sixteenth.

*Friday, July 4, the $25,000 July Fourth Handicap for three year olds and up at a mile and a sixteenth, the $15,000 added Firecracker Handicap for three year olds at six and a half furlongs and the $10,000 Oceanus Starter's Handicap for three year olds and up at a mile and three eighths.

*Saturday, July 5, the $20,000 added Blood Horse for three year olds and up (fillies and mares) at one mile and the $20,000 added Freshman Derby for two year olds at six and a half furlongs.

Horton came up with 3-1 victory over Stein and Coetz thanks to some alert base-running by his teammates.

With bases loaded in the sixth and with the Bara bunched on third, Horton, on second, and Gentle on first, manager Bara asked and got from Tom Carpenter a perfect bunt which squeezed in Bara from third. Horton also made it across the plate when the peg to the plate went wide of its target.

Yocum To Play At CMU

BELLEVILLE--John Yocum, a 6-foot-3, 185-pound quarterback from Belleville, will play freshman football at Central Michigan University this fall, CMU Coach Roy Kramer, reported.

Yocum, named to the all-conference and all-area teams as a high school player, signed a national letter of intent indicating he has accepted Central's front-in-aid offer to play football at the University, Kramer says.

John has the height we've been looking for in a quarterback and has displayed the ability to become a fine college quarterback," Kramer said. "We're very pleased he chose our school."

Pictorial Report on Rotary Club's Installation

SAY IT WITH FLOWERS SEEMS TO BE THE ENJOYMENT HERE—Incoming Belleville Rotary Club's president, Dr. John MacDaniel and his wife, and outgoing president Harold Harris and Mrs. Harris radiate smiles of appreciation for the floral gifts and congratulations showered on both couples by Rotarians at the Installation Banquet held last Tuesday, June 27. Harris is now a member of the Board of Directors.

ASSESSING FINES—Hardly a meeting of the Belleville Rotary Club goes by without some member being fined for one reason or another. And the Installation Banquet gathering was no different. Above is Mrs. Justin Emerson who took over the chore during Ladies Night which was held along with officer installation.

Reminder is Issued On Fireworks Law...

Local units of government in Michigan are advised by the State Police fire marshal division at East Lansing that forms for applications and permits concerning public displays and storage of fireworks may be obtained at all the 59 State Police posts.

This is in accordance with a 1968 amendment, Act 358, of the Michigan fireworks law.

The only units of government which may legally accept applications for fireworks displays and issue permits are the councils or commissions of cities and villages, and township boards.

 THE FORMS available at State Police posts to city, village and township authorities are for application for fireworks display permit, for permits for fireworks display, and for permits for resident wholesale dealer's or jobber's possession of fireworks.

The amendment to the fireworks law provides for more rigid control of permits for public displays and agricultural use or otherwise prohibited fireworks and requires that dealers and jobbers have permits for possessing and storing fireworks to be sold to holders of display permits.

PCHA Directors Approve Proposed Plans

INCLUDES NEW HOSPITAL

WAYNE - Peoples Community Hospital Authority's Vice-Chairman (PCHA) and Chairman of the Authority's Long Range Planning Committee, Patrick J. Norton, called the unanimous decision last Thursday (June 19) by the Board of Directors to move ahead with its ten-year long-range health care services program a "plan of comprehensive care that we can all be proud of and that will serve our communities long after we are gone."

The new PCHA "Proposed Service Plan" calls for a new 300-bed hospital in Taylor by 1975; a central laundry to service PCHA hospitals; outpatient treatment of alcoholics; mental health programs; further development of child guidance clinics; and ultimate expansion of existing PCHA hospitals to meet health care needs of the expanding population in the Authority's service area.

Programs for the care of long term ill patients and provision for ambulatory patients are also included.

"WE ARE doing more than merely meeting the basic health care needs of our communities in the next ten years," said Norton. "The Service Program calls for innovations and additions of health care services so that PCHA will be able to provide comprehensive care for the 1½ million people who by 1980 will be living in the Authority's total service area," he added.

Enthusiasm for the plan ran high at the board meeting. Doubts appeared limited to whether PCHA was moving far enough fast enough.

Roland W. Arnold (Southgate) wondered, for example, if it wouldn't be more prudent to build at the outset a hospital in Taylor that would ultimately be needed by 1980, instead of building in stages.

Karl S. Klicka, M.D., Executive Director, explained that since population projections used by the committee are conservative, and since it costs half as much to maintain an empty bed as a full one, the recommendation on the new Taylor hospital is to construct an expensible hospital.

ENTHUSIASTIC SUPPORT for the Service Program was expressed by Alexander Papp, Taylor director and member of the Long Range Planning Committee.

"It is hard to regard long range planning as critical until you have had personal experience and need a hospital bed for a member of your own family," he said. "In my view, the Service Program is long overdue and

4-H Youth Agent is Appointed

EAST LASING.—William G. Younglove has been appointed extension 4-H youth agent for Wayne and Oakland counties, George McIntyre, director of the Cooperative Extension Service at Michigan State University, announced.

Younglove's appointment is effective July 1. The appointment was announced Friday at the June meeting of MSU's Board of Trustees.

Since 1964 Younglove has been a teacher at Southfield. Before that he taught at Bloomfield Hills. From 1957 to 1960, he was cited building inspector for Highland Park.

Younglove's office will be at 5455 Wayne Road, Wayne.

Soapstone is highly resistant to heat and acids.

should be implemented with dispatch."

New director John Trelay of Trenton echoed the board's enthusiasm. "It is a thrill to find myself associated with a truly community-oriented organization. A person not only serves his own constituents but knows he is doing something significant for the people of a large area of Michigan."

Timothy J. Dyer, director and Mayor of Ypsilanti, called the board action, "trail blazing."

"WE ARE doing more than planning to build a fifth hospital," said Dyer. "We are moving into areas of social health care by planning for such needed services as child guidance, care of alcoholics, and mental health."

PATRICK J. NORTON

Mrs. Justine Barns (Westland) offered a "mother's view" of the PCHA Service Program, saying she regards it as "the planting of another mustard seed." She commended the committee, administrative staff and board for considering a mother's concern for providing adequate health care services for children.

Norton explained that the Service Program must now be submitted to the Greater Detroit Area Hospital Council. Assuming approval (Council representatives have participated in sessions of the Long Range Planning Committee meetings), the program would return to the PCHA for further discussion, construction studies, and, ultimately, determination of methods of financing the ten-year program.

Donald J. Pizzimenti, PCHA Chairman, concluded the meeting by observing that the board's unanimous decision to move ahead on the program demonstrates the community-awareness of all members of the Authority.

"Our decision tonight clearly indicates that the motives and ambitions of PCHA go far beyond provincial and local interests. It makes a man feel good to be part of an organization courageous enough to consider the needs of the larger community," said Pizzimenti.

MAHALAK LAUDS ACTION

State School Aid Bill Signed by Gov. Milliken

State Representative Edward E. Mahalak (d) of Romulus was present as Governor Milliken signed into law a state school aid bill which carries special benefits to the Huron, Van Buren and Airport School Districts.

The bill provides for increased school aid allowances for all schools in Mahalak's 38th District.

A special provision of the school aid bill grants additional aid for the Huron, Van Buren and Airport Districts because of their expanded financial costs in receiving students from the dissolved Sumpter school system.

Van Buren is to receive $95,400, Airport $50,000 and Huron $28,600, Mahalak reported.

"I HAVE been informed," he said, "that the three school districts will receive th money in approximately 60 days. This will be in addition to the regular state aid payments."

Mahalak was a leader in efforts to furnish the special compensation for the three districts. "I was very happy to see this bill signed into law by the Governor," he said. "The assistance is badly needed and the state had a responsibility to provide it. The districts were forced to take the student load from Sumpter."

In addition to the payment this year, there will be yearly audits of the three districts and other such receiving districts in the state by the Department of Education.

Based on the audit, the department will make recommendations to the Legislature on needed additional financial relief.

Area Girl Scouts Attend Camp Linden

BELLEVILLE—All packed and set to go are nine area Girl Scouts from Southern Wayne Association.

The following girls will be attending Camp Linden for the first of four two-week sessions being offered to scouts this year:

Connie Bracken, Beverly Cox, Ann Kalasz, Nancy Merrill, Lisa Shover, Terri Sienko, Linda and Mary Thompson all of Belleville and Garnet Morris of Carlton.

The session stated at 3 p.m., June 25, and will last through July 9. Highlight of this session is the Fourth of July celebration at camp.

The girls are among 125 registered in a general program that will provide a variety of activities such as swimming, hiking, nature study and dramatics; cooking in the out-of-doors and living in platform tents.

THESE SCOUTS were wise enough to sent in their registrations early. Camp Linden is in its fourth year of operation and is still not able to enroll every Girl Scout who would like to attend the resident camp. By having four sessions and a waiting list, hopefully most of the girls will have this wonderful opportunity.

The sale of Girl Scout Cookies this year was the highest yet and the proceeds from this sale will help alleviate some of the needs of Linden this summer and in the future.

Leaving at the same time but enrolled in the Wider Opportunit of Arts in the Out-of-Doors provided for the Cadette and Senior Scouts are Cheryl Thompson and Mary White, Cadettes from Troop 419 of Belleville. Their leader Mrs. Cleatus Price is very proud to have the two girls from her troop gaining this additional scouting experience.

Along with other scouts from the Huron Valley Council they will participate in advanced camping using round-up tents and special emphasis will be placed on music, drama, hand arts and dancing, developing the girls' deepening interests and creative talents.

THE CITY OF BELLEVILLE ORDAINS:

Section 1. That Ordinance No. 56-77, as amended, entitled "The City of Belleville Water and Sewer Ordinance," be and it is hereby further amended by changing sections 7. 6, 8. 2, 8. 3 and 8. 4; repealing sections 7. 7 and 8. 5; and adding sections 7. 12 and 8. 8, which changed and added sections shall read as follows:

Section 7.6 TAP CHARGE. For any tap or any enlargement or reduction in size of a previous tap, a charge shall be made on the basis of the actual cost to the City, including overhead and full cost of meter and all material, plus 20% of such actual cost, which total cost in no event shall be less than One Hundred and Twenty-Five Dollars payable in an amount estimated by the Department before permit required herein is issued, with final settlement to be made before Water is turned into service of Customer.

Section 7.7 LARGE TAP CHARGE - Section 7.7 is hereby repealed.

Section 7.12 LIMITATION ON OUTSIDE SERVICES - Whenever services are applied for under this article, to premises located outside City, the Department shall forthwith advise the Council of such application, and no such services shall be furnished without the approval of the Council. Provided, further, that no water service shall be furnished to any premises outside the City unless the owner of said premises applies for and uses services of the sewer system of the City in connection with the premises for which water service is sought. In the event that the City sewer system is not available to said premises, then the Council may, in its discretion, authorize water service upon such terms, charges and conditions as it shall deem proper.

Section 8.2 SEWAGE DISPOSAL RATES FOR WATER CUSTOMERS. In addition to the water rates established hereunder, each Water Customer shall be made a Sewage disposal charge of Sixty (60) Cents for each one thousand gallons of water consumed, to cover the cost of disposing of the Customer's sewage.

Section 8.3 SEWER DISPOSAL RATES FOR NON-WATER CUSTOMERS. In the event that a Customer has a private water source or obtains his water from a source other than the City of Belleville and his sewage is dumped into City lines, the City shall require that a meter be set in such sewerage connecting line, at the sole cost to the Customer, which meter shall be read and billed by the City to the Customer at the rate of Ninety (90) Cents per one thousand gallons of sewage. In the event that the Customer fails or refuses to install said meter then the City shall install the meter and bill the Customer on the basis of the actual cost to the City, including overhead and materials, plus the sum of 20% of such actual cost, which cost in no event shall be less than One Hundred and Fifty ($150.00) Dollars. The charge for the installation of the meter shall be paid by the Customer immediately upon receipt of the bill and the City shall have a lien against the property for any unpaid charge. In the event that the Customer has a private water line in which a water meter has been installed which can be read by the City, then the charge to the Customer for sewerage disposal shall be based upon the amount of water consumed. In the event that the Customer has a source of water other than the City of Belleville and has a meter installed in the line which can be read by the City of Belleville, then such Customer shall likewise be billed upon the volume of water consumed. In no event shall the minimum charge for sewerage disposal be less than Ten Dollars per month.

Section 8.4 TAP CHARGE - For any sewer tap, or any enlargement or reduction in size of a previous tap, a charge shall be made on the basis of the actual cost to the City, including overhead and material, plus the sum of 20% of such actual cost, which cost in no event shall be less than One Hundred and Twenty-Five Dollars payable in an amount estimated by the Department, before permit required herein is issued, with final settlement to be made before use is permitted by the Customer.

Section 8.5 LARGE TAP CHARGE - Section 8.5 is hereby repealed.

Section 8.8 LIMITATION ON OUTSIDE SERVICES - Whenever services are applied for under this article, to premises located outside the City, the Department shall forthwith advise the Council of such application, and no such services shall be furnished without the approval of the Council. Provided, further, that no sewer service shall be furnished to any premises outside the City unless the owner of said premises applies for and uses services of the water system of the City in connection with the premises for which sewer service is sought. In the event that the City water system is not available to said premises, then the Council may, in its discretion, authorize sewer service upon such terms, charges and conditions as it shall deem proper.

Section 2. REPEAL - All ordinances, or parts of ordinances, in conflict herewith are hereby repealed only to the extent necessary to give this ordinance full force and effect.
